SUPREME COURT. - The following decision was rendered in the Supreme Court yesterday Nathan Raymond et. al. ve-Effe Thomas, from the Wayne Circuit Court. Affirmed.

About these days the almanac says look out for heavy gas bills. If the Gas Company can furnish gas for the next twenty years, as all other gas companies that we know of, have they propose to do, at $3.48 per 1,800 feet, why do they now charge $4 50 per 1,000?

The Newcombs change their base tonight, and make their third appearance at Masonic Hall. This change will enable the audience the better to appreciate the performances of this texcellent troupe. They stay but two nights more, and present a new programme each evening. Go and see them.

EDITOR SENTINEL: From a connection of nine years with the Indianapolis Gas Light and Coke Remember that No 3 Odd Fellows' Hall is the Company, as chief executive officer, and much place to buy Furs. of the time with C. F. Brown, as superintendent -a man of great learning in the practical sciences, and of long practical experience in the manufacture of gas-I propose to submit some facts and reflections for the consideration of the citizens of Indianapolis.

It is believed that much misapprehension exists in reference to the earnings of our city Gas Company. That the citizens, for themselves, may form an impartial and unprejudiced opinion. I would call attention to the following statement, made by Messrs, G. P. Anderson and L. THE GREAT FIRE AT CONSTANTINOPLE. The Tribune has a letter from Constantinople which estimates the result of the late conflagration at from 600 to 800 houses burned, including more than a hundred palaces, eight mosques, two churches, five khans, and many public baths. It is estimated the sufferers by fire number about 75,000. The space burned over is about two miles in length and one-half a mile in width, including some of the wealthiest and poorest quarters in Stamboul. The Torks are the heaviest suffer ers; all the palaces burned belonged to them, and suppose seven-tenths of the houses and shops I walked to day over the ruins of the Turkish quarters, and such a scene of absolute destitution
